The undersigned hereafter "I" do hereby agree with the following items regarding the Federal Affordable Connectivity Program "ACP".

The ACP program will give a credit of up to $30.00 off qualifying monthly broadband charges to eligible households, the actual amount is subject to program terms.

I hereby understand that the Affordable Connectivity Program is a government program administered by the Universal Service Administrative Company. ("USAC")

I hereby understand that Paragould Light Water and Cable ("PLWC") does not make decisions with regards to a household's eligibility in the ACP program, each household must qualify at the following website www.ACPbenefit.org . If the household's application is successful, PLWC can then enroll consumers into the ACP program.

I hereby understand the ACP program is voluntary in nature and I hereby give my consent for PLWC to share my household's information to check eligibility against the USAC database, and if successful enroll my household into the ACP program.

I hereby understand the ACP program is a temporary program and will cease when Congress deems appropriate.

I hereby understand If the applicant already has established service before enrollment in the ACP program, PLWC will automatically remove the monthly credit when the ACP program has ceased.

I hereby understand If I am establishing new service with PLWC through the ACP program, the applicant will be subject to PLWC's undiscounted rates and general terms and conditions at the end of the program. PLWC will discontinue broadband services automatically at the conclusion of the ACP program for customers who established a new broadband service with PLWC through the ACP program. If the applicant wishes to continue service at PLWC's undiscounted rates, they hereby agree to establish new broadband services with PLWC at the time the ACP program ends.

The applicant hereby understands that their household may obtain broadband service supported by the ACP from any participating provider of their choosing, and that they may transfer their ACP program benefit to another provider at any time.

Signed
